

Why does the Movie Industry think they are better then anyone else, do they not know that they are the downfall of society because of there makings,or is money the power of all control.

Regards,

Pius Klein,